Numb. 9224.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday December 12, to Saturday December 16, 1752.

St. James's, December 16.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty; who was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars, of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe and happy Return to your Britiſh Dominions.

Your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government at Home, and your unwearied Labours to promote and ſecure the publick Tranquility Abroad, muſt fill the Heart of every Perſon, who hath any Regard for the Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms, with the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude, and the moſt ardent Zeal for the Welfare of your Majeſty and your Royal Houſe.

But we of your Majeſty's loyal Univerſity are moſt particularly oblig'd to acknowledge the Bleſſings we enjoy under your auſpicious Reign, and to expreſs our unfeigned Satisfaction at the happy Proſpect of thoſe Bleſſings being continued to the lateſt Poſterity.

Permit us, Great Sir, to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Perſon, and of our conſtant Study to inſtruct the Youth committed to our Care in ſuch Principles of Religion and Government, as may, under God, render them loyal Subjects, and worthy to be rul'd by your Majeſty and your Royal Family.

[Price Two-Pence.]

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE are not inſenſible that your Majeſty's Endeavours were ſtrenuouſly exerted (whilſt Abroad) to make your Britiſh and Iriſh Subjects eaſy and happy at Home.

This your Princely Care of their Intereſts, is the rather to be admired, as the Danger of the Seas, the Change of Climates, and the Fatigue of Travelling, could not deter you from removing to a Situation, where the Advantages to reſult to them could not only be more readily obtained, but at the ſame Time more effectually ſecured.

Your Conduct and Adminiſtration makes us happy, and your Example muſt be a Leſſon to your Succeſſors, how our Poſterity is to be made ſo; and as no Return can be ſuitable on our Part, to ſuch abundant Goodneſs on yours—Be pleaſed, Royal Sir, to accept the only Tribute we can give you—the Acknowledgements of loyal and grateful Hearts—And ſo far honour us, as to rank us in the Number of thoſe, whoſe Joy is, Tranſport, on your ſafe Arrival to your Britiſh Dominions.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid City to be hereunto affixed, the Seventh Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty two.

Petersbourg, Nov. 16. Preparations are now actually making with great Diligence for her Imperial Majeſty's intended Journey to Moſcow, which will certainly take Place towards the Middle of next Month, if the Sledging Ways are open. Count Coloredo, who acted in Conjunction with Baron Pretlack, their Imperial Majeſties Ambaſſador at this Court, ſet out a few few Days ago for Vienna, from whence ſome other Nobleman is ſoon expected in his Room. We are informed by ſeveral private Letters received here from Perſia, by the Way of Aſtracan and Derbent, that the great Diviſions and Troubles in that unhappy Kingdom, have almoſt ruined the ſame.

Rome, Nov. 18. On Monday laſt Cardinal Portocarrero, the Spaniſh Ambaſſador, had a private Audience of the Pope, to communicate the Contents of ſome important Diſpatches he had received from his Court; after which the Pope had a long Conference with Cardinal Valenti, Secretary of State, and in the Evening an Expreſs was diſpatched to Madrid. Cardinal Cavalchini is made Protector of the Order of the Celeſtins, in the Room of the late Cardinal Riviera. The Marqueſs de Oſſun, who arrived here ſome Days ago, having ſeen every Thing remarkable in this City, has continued his Journey to the Court of Naples, where he is to reſide in Quality of Ambaſſador from his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty. On the 13th Inſtant a private Conſiſtory was held at the Palace of the Quirinal, upon the Affairs of the Inquiſition. The Pope has appointed a Son of Prince Caffarelli's, to be one of the Canons of St. Peter's, vacant by the Death of M. Olivieri. M. Agliata, Governor of Porto d'Anzo, died here a few Days ago, and has left the greateſt Part of his Fortune, which is very conſiderable, to the Marqueſs Locatelli. Laſt Week died alſo in this City, the Duke of Zagaroli, in the 80th Year of his Age. We learn from Civita Vecchia, that one of the Pope's Gallies, aſſiſted by two Genoeſe Ships, has taken the Algerine Xebeck that cruized off the Iſland of Giglio, and greatly interrupted the Commerce of the Chriſtian Powers.

Leghorn, Nov. 20. Although our laſt Letters from Corſica ſeem to contradict each other in many Circumſtances, yet they all agree that the Malecontents in that Iſland have abſolutely refuſed to ſubmit to the new Regulation propoſed by the French; and that they are preparing to renew the War with greater Animoſity than ever; ſo that it may be ſaid, with great Truth, that the Affairs of that Iſland are at preſent in a very critical Situation.

Stockholm, Nov. 24. We hear from Gothenbourg, that two of our Eaſt India Company's Ships, which have been equipping for ſome Time paſt in that Port, are put to Sea for China.

Copenhagen, Nov. 25. 'Tis ſaid the Troops of this Kingdom will be formed into two Camps in the Spring, one in the Neighbourhood of this City, and the other in Holſtein. The King has nominated M. Scheel for Director of the Fortifications in Norway. A Ship belonging to our Eaſt India Company came to an Anchor in this Road on the 17th Inſtant, richly laden from the Coaſt of Malabar; ſince which the Crews of two other of that Company's Ships, which are preparing to ſail for China, have been reviewed by the proper Officers.

Dreſden, Nov. 28. We are informed by our laſt Letters from Warſaw, that their Majeſties propoſe to ſet out from thence on their Return to this City, about the Middle of next Month. The Princeſs Marie-Chriſtine was ſeized the Beginning of laſt Week with the Small Pox, but as they are now turned, ſhe is thought to be quite out of Danger. The write from Dantzick, that the Diſtemper amongſt the Horned Cattle, which they thought was entirely at an End, is broke out again in the Neighbourhood of that City, and makes great Havock.

Leige, Dec. 3. The Elector of Bavaria, who ſet out on Friday Morning laſt from Bonn, and had taken his Route by Aix la Chapelle, arrived here Yeſterday in the Afternoon, and was ſaluted at his Entrance into this City by a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon of our Citadel; and the Troops of our Garriſon, who were under Arms, lined the Streets through which he paſſed to the Palace; his Electoral Highneſs's Stay here will be much ſhorter than was expected, he being to ſet out To-morrow Night for the Court of Manheim.

Bruſſels, Dec. 4. The Marqueſs Grimaldi, Envoy Extraordinary from the Court of Spain to that of Sweden, arrived here ſome Days ago from the Hague, and has met with a gracious Reception from Prince Charles of Lorrain our Sovereign, with whom he had the Honour of dining. Father Leonard Thys, who was a few Days ago elected Abbe of the Abbey of Vlierbeek, has ſince been inſtalled in that Quality. His Serene Highneſs our Sovereign has appointed M. Streytam, one of the Magiſtrates of Mechlin, to be one of his Privy Council; and his Highneſs has alſo filled up ſeveral Vacancies in the Chamber of Accompts, and in the Finances.

Hague, Dec. 7. The States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland continue their Deliberations on the ſeveral important Affairs that were lately laid before them. M. Peſters, Deputy to the Council of State, on the Part of the Province of Utrecht, is arrived here, and has taken his Seat in that Council. Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante having appointed Baron Heyden, firſt Chamberlain to the late Prince Stadtholder, to be actual Chamberlain to the young Prince Stadtholder her Son, he has already begun to officiate in that high Poſt.

Victualling-Office, Dec. 11, 1752.

The Commiſſioners for Victualling his Majeſty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wedneſday the 20th Inſtant, exactly at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat for Hogs for Sea Store for the Port of London, to begin killing from the 31ſt Inſtant.

And on the ſame Day they will alſo be ready to treat for Oxen for Sea Store for the ſaid Port, to begin killing from the ſaid 20th Inſtant.
